Treasures & Memories Thrift Day

A Social Shopping & Learning Excursion

Join us for a relaxed and enjoyable Thrift Day Excursion as we travel together to a variety of local thrift stores in search of hidden treasures, antiques, and meaningful finds. Along the way, participants will learn tips on how to recognize potential antiques and collectibles, what details to look for, and how everyday items may hold unexpected value and history.

Thrifting often sparks memories and stories, offering a wonderful opportunity to reminisce, share experiences, and connect with others in a fun, low-pressure setting. Whether you are an experienced treasure hunter or simply curious about what you might discover, this excursion combines social connection, learning, and the excitement of finding something special.

Date: Tuesday, July 21, 2026

Cost: $35.00 (includes transportation)

Lunch: On your own (Lemongrass Cafe/Italian Centre/DO)

Booking Day: Tuesday, June 9th

The Excursion supports the FCSS mandate by encouraging social connection, shared interests, and meaningful conversation among seniors. Group experiences like this help reduce social isolation, foster a sense of belonging, and promote mental and emotional well-being through learning and community engagement.
